(Section 23)

DIRECTIONS TO ELECTORS

Each elector may vote at one polling station and for only one candidate.

The elector will go into one of the compartments and with a blank lead pencil there provided place a cross within the white space containing the name of the candidate for whom he votes, thus X.

The elector shall then fold the ballot paper so that the initials of the presiding officer and the number of the counterfoil can be seen and the counterfoil detached without opening the ballot paper; he shall return the ballot paper so folded to the presiding officer shall in full view of those present, including the elector, remove the counterfoil and place the ballot paper in the ballot box. The elector shall then forthwith quit the polling station.

If an elector inadvertently spoils a ballot paper he may return it to the presiding officer who on being satisfied of the fact will give him another.

If an elector votes for more than one candidate or places any mark on the ballot paper by which he can afterwards be identified, his vote will be void and will not be counted.

In the following form of ballot paper given for illustration the candidates are Conrad D. Bishop, Frances O'Neale, and George Robinson, and the elector has marked his ballot paper in favour of Frances O'Neale.
